NO FURTHER PEACE MOVE UNTIL ASKED BY POWERS

Will Not Join Vatican in Effort for Peace at This Time—Will Wait to Be Asked By Both Sides to the Conflict—Wilson Says Original Peace Offer Still Stands—Turks on Gallipoli Reported Surrounded and Fall of Peninsula Is Expected—British Transport Reported Sunk at Entrance to Dardanelles and 1,930 Lives Lost—Berlin Reports That Von Hindenberg Has Completed the Capture of Grodno. Spain Denies She Contemplates a Mobilization of Troops in October—Germans Are Again Advancing on Riga—Austrian and German Armies in East May Separate, the Austrians Withdrawing to the Serbian Front.

[By Associated Press.]

Washington, Sept. 3.—The United States will make no further efforts to bring about peace in Europe until it receives information that its good offices will be welcome to both sides of the conflict. This was stated authoritatively today. President Wilson's original offer of his services to bring about peace still stands.

EXPECT FALL OF GALLIPOLI.

[By Associated Press.]
Paris, Sept. 3.—An important part of the Turkish forces on Gallipoli Peninsula is surrounded by the allies and its surrender is imminent, according to an Athens dispatch.

1,930 LOST ON TRANSPORT.

[By Associated Press.]
Berlin, Sept. 3.—A Sofia dispatch says a British transport struck a mine at the entrance to the Dardanelles and sunk. Nine hundred and thirty lives were lost.

GRODNO HAS FALLEN.

[By Associated Press.]
Berlin, Sept. 3.—The official statement today says Field Marshal von Hindenburg has captured Grodno, the last strong Russian fortress holding out.

United States Cruiser Brings Refugees

[By Associated Press.]
Canea, Crete, Sept. 3.—The American cruiser Des Moines yesterday arrived with more than 500 refugees, mostly French, from Jaffa, Palestine. The cruiser was given an enthusiastic reception.

Still They Go Down.

[By Associated Press.]
London, Sept. 3.—The British steamer Roumania was sunk, presumably by a German submarine. The crew was saved.

Spain Denies Mobilization.

[By Associated Press.]
Madrid, Sept. 3.—The Spanish government denies the report published abroad that Spain had determined upon a general mobilization of troops in October. Spain still awaits a reply to its protest to Germany over the sinking of the Spanish steamship Isidoro by a German submarine.

Advance on Riga.

[By Associated Press.]
Berlin, Sept. 3.—The Germans are advancing against the Russians at Riga on the Baltic Sea. They have captured an important position forty miles from Riga.

Armies May Separate.

[By Associated Press.]
London, Sept. 3.—An Amsterdam dispatch says the German and Austrian armies on the Eastern front are about to part company. It is reported the Austrians will leave Poland for the Serbian front.

Many Christians Perish.

[By Associated Press.]
New York, Sept. 3.—One thousand Christians were killed and 4,000 died of disease at Urumiah, Persia, during five months of Turkish occupation, according to a letter received by the Presbyterian board today.

Another Went Down.

[By Associated Press.]
San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 3.—The British steamer William T. Lewis, owned here, was sunk off Queenstown today by a German submarine, according to a cablegram received here.

ANOTHER STORM IN GULF OF MEXICO

Expected to Go East and Strike Tonight Between New Orleans and Cedar Keys.

[By Associated Press.]

Washington, Sept. 3.—Hurricane warnings have been ordered displayed by the Weather Bureau on the gulf coast between New Orleans and Cedar Keys. The storm is expected to strike the coast somewhere between New Orleans and Cedar Keys tonight or tomorrow.

WACO BUSINESS MEN ARRIVE AT 6 TODAY

Committee Will Meet Visitors and Welcome Them to Bryan—Meeting at Carnegie Hall Tonight.

News was received at 1 o'clock today from the Waco business men. They were in Calvert at the time and will arrive in Bryan today on schedule time—6 o'clock. They will be met by a committee of Bryan citizens as follows: Ed Hall, A. M. Waldrop, A. W. Wilkerson, L. L. McInnis, M. E. Wallace, W. C. Davis, Tyler Haswell, Mayor Harris, E. F. Parks, O. E. Saunders, J. L. Edge, P. S. Park, J. R. Astin and others.

A mass meeting will be held tonight at the Carnegie Hall at 8 o'clock, when the visitors will have an opportunity to get acquainted with Bryan's business men and explain fully the objects and purposes of their trip through the Brazos valley. It is important that a large representative number of Bryan business men attend this meeting.

Our former fellow townsman, R. J. Potts, is among the number and urges that Bryan people take an interest in this meeting, which will be of great importance to the community in general. Mr. Potts says there are about forty men in the party, who represent the business interests of Waco and men of unusual ability. He asks that Bryan be represented throughout the remainder of the trip if possible. They will leave Bryan in their special train at 8:30 Saturday morning and visit Navasota, Hempstead and Brenham, returning to Waco Saturday night.
